The Wide World of Seeds

Presented by

Ann Amato, Seedswoman, Seedseller and Seedstress at Cistus Nursery

Why is it important to save seeds? Travel down the path of plant hunting in the wild and learn how seeds are key to plant breeding and habitat restoration. We will discuss which plants to choose and how to save and store their seeds. Cleaning techniques will also be described and shown.

Bring your curiosity and questions.

Conditions permitting, we may go out into the gardens.
