Intro to Perennial Agriculture

Presented by

Eve Hanlin, Landscape Designer, Garden Mentor, and owner of Evelyn's Garden

More food, less maintenance? It sounds like a vegetable gardener's fantasy, but unique species of perennial edibles, planted effectively, can make this dream come true. Trees with edible leaves? Salad greens that regrow each year on their own, sometimes even in the snow? Join us and plant nerd Eve, to learn a new way of vegetable gardening; the basics of planting a "food forest". Discover edible perennial plant species that grow well in our area and how this new agricultural movement may even save the world. Take home resources to help you learn more.
