Attracting Birds and Watershed Health

Presented by

Antonya Pickard, Backyard Habitat Certification
Program

Birds delight us with their presence in our backyards and provide many beneficial services, from pest-control to pollination. Creating a welcoming environment for these winged visitors doesn't have to be complicated and can offer you benefits as well- our Backyard Habitat Certification expert will show us how!

Topics to be discussed: How-to build habitat areas, Hedgerows, Raingardens, and specific birds you might like to visit your garden!
