Northwest Native Garden Plants and the Amazing Insects They Attract

Presented by

Amy Campion

Co-author of Gardening in the Pacific Northwest: The Complete Homeowner's Guide and Master Melittologist Apprentice

Gardens—even in urban areas—can be hotspots of biodiversity, and native plants play a key role in fostering that diversity. Join our speaker, a Portland garden writer and photographer, for an exploration of some of the best natives to plant in your wildlife-friendly Northwest garden and learn about the fascinating insects they support.
