Soils are the Secret

Presented by

Krista Lawrence, Landscape Designer, Garden Coach, owner of Petros Design (www.petrosdesign.com)

Soil is vital—it is the foundation to landscapes and gardens. It supports ecosystem services and provides a home for many creatures. Harmful chemicals, such as herbicides, fungicides, and pesticides, can harm soil bacteria and fungi reducing the system's ability to decompose debris and cycle soil nutrients. We'll learn about the importance of soil and how to kickstart your soil's health to create a thriving ecosystem that supports your garden dreams. Krista will share information about her favorite local products and experiences that encourage robust soil in landscapes.
