

NatureScaping of SW Washington

Wildlife Botanical Gardens

August 17, 2024

10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Battle Ground Blooms-a family-run flower farm

Presented by

Andy and Tobie Bryant, owners

Battle Ground Blooms (www.battlegroundblooms.com)

We are a husband & wife team who began Battle Ground Blooms in 2020; our son, Aaron, joined the operation in 2023. Would you like to grow more flowers? Come join us to learn about why we started a flower farm and cut flower business. We will discuss a "year in the life" on the farm, our growing practices, and the many challenges we've faced along the way. We will also talk about the amazing group of flower farmers we work with in the Evergreen Floral Alliance of Southwest Washington. We'll look at some interesting annuals, perennials, shrubs and bulbs that can add interest to your landscape and benefit a variety of pollinators and birds.
